

Summer 2023

Ocean Freight

What is the Summer program for Ocean-Freight?

At Cote d'Or Imports, the quality of your wine is our primary concern, and that quality could be compromised if delivered without taking the weather into account. We have compiled the best possible list of specialty delivery options in order to combat the warm temperatures. Please take a moment to review those options below and see which of them you would prefer:

Ocean-freight is ideal for those who are not in a rush to receive their wines. Every step is temperature-controlled until your order arrives and is safely stored in our US wine warehouse. From there, the different options in the summer program below are available to you.

For this delivery option, the approximate timing is between 10 and 14 weeks.

Timing above is subject to change without notice based on customs clearance, international cargo transit times, etc
